FORTIETH CONGRESS.

The Senate Passes the Arkansas Bill Over the President's Veto, Thus Making it a Law—The Kentucky Election Case—Mr. McKee Admitted to a Seat in the House—The Special Tax Bill Considered—The Disability Bill Passed—Resolution to Reorganize the Public Debt and Reduce Interest.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 22, 1868.

SENATE.

The Committee on Military reported a joint resolution to drop from the army rolls certain officers absent without leave from their commands; also, a joint resolution to authorize the sale of unserviceable ordnance; also, a joint resolution for the sale of the site of Fort Covington, Maryland. The latter passed.

Mr. CONNESS offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Foreign Relations be discharged from the further consideration of the bill from the House for the protection of American citizens abroad.

Mr. SUMNER objected to its consideration.

Mr. CONNESS gave notice that to-morrow he will ask the Senate to consider that resolution.

Mr. YATES called up the bill to admit Colorado into the Union.

Mr. MORRILL, of Vermont, opposed the bill, because Colorado had not sufficient population, and Messrs. CRAGIN and NYE supported it.

The bill went over with the morning hour.

On motion of Mr. EDMUNDS, the concurrent resolution of thanks to E. M. Stanton was ordered to be communicated to him.

Mr. TRUMBULL endeavored to have the veto of the Arkansas bill considered, but Mr. DAVIS having indicated his intention to speak on the subject,

Mr. MORRILL, of Maine, insisted on the special order, and the legislative appropriation bill was taken up in Committee of the Whole. The question was on amendments by the Committee on Appropriations.

An amendment by Mr. HENDRICKS, reducing the salaries named in the Committee's amendment for the Capitol police, of Captain from $2,000 to $1,800, of Lieutenant from $1,800 to $1,500, and of privates from $1,500 to $1,200, was rejected, after some discussion, by a vote of 11 to 19.

The Committee's amendment, cutting off the Assistant Secretary, short-hand reporter and two clerks of the fourth class of the President, was adopted, after debate, by 19 to 12.

An amendment repealing the act of August 18, 1856, requiring foreign regulations of commerce to be laid before Congress, and the second section of the act of 1866, making appropriations for consular and diplomatic service, was debated at some length.

The first clause of the amendment abolishes the office of Superintendent of Statistics, while the second clause abolishes the office of Second Assistant Secretary of State and the Examiner of Claims.

Without a decision thereon the bill was, on Mr. TRUMBULL'S motion, laid aside until to-morrow, and the veto of the Arkansas bill taken up.

Mr. DAVIS agued that the bill was unconstitutional, after which the Senate proceeded to vote on the question, shall the bill pass, notwithstanding the objection of the President, with the following result:

Yeas—Messrs. Chandler, Cole, Conkling, Conness, Corbet, Cragin, Edmunds, Ferry, Fessenden, Harlor, Howard, Morrill (Vermont), Morgan, Nye, Patterson (New Hampshire), Pomeroy, Ramsey, Ross, Sherman, Sprague, Stewart, Sumner, Thayer, Tipton, Trumbull, Van Winkle, Wade, Willey, Wilson and Yates—30.

Nays—Messrs. Bayard, Davis, Doolittle, Hendricks, Patterson, (Tennessee), McCreery and Saulsbury—7.

So the bill became a law.

Adjourned.

Mr. TRIMBLE, Kentucky, opposed the report of the Committee on Elections.

At twelve, without disposition thereof, the House proceeded to the business of the morning hour.

A number of bills and joint resolutions were introduced for reference.

To allow drawbacks on articles used in construction of vessels.

The House refused to second the previous question, and

Mr. TRIMBLE, Kentucky, having risen to debate the resolution, it went over under the rules.

Mr. LOGAN offered a resolution for the collection and binding of the proceedings in different cities and towns on the occasion of the ceremonies in the decoration of the graves of Union soldiers, and appropriating $1,000 for the purpose, which was agreed to.

Mr. NEWCOMB offered a resolution that the House meet daily at 11 A. M. Tabled.

Mr. M'CLURG offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Public Lands to inquire into the expediency, utility and policy of making a grant of land for the improvement of the Osage river, Missouri. Adopted.

Mr. LOUGHRIDGE offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That in the opinion of the House, the interests of the country require that the public debt should be reorganized and reduced to a simple uniform system, more easily understood by the people than it is in its present complicated form, and that the interest on the debt should be reduced, and for that purpose the Committee of Ways and Means be instructed to prepare and report at as early a day as possible a bill providing for funding the public debt and reduction of the rate interest thereon in such a manner and to such extent that taxation may be reduced and equalized as far as possible consistently with good faith to national creditors and justice to the people.

Mr. ELDRIDGE suggested that the word "reconstructed" be used instead of the word "reorganized," as the former word would correspond better with the acts of the House.

Mr. LOUGHRIDGE insisted on the previous question.

Mr. SPAULDING suggested that the resolution be modified so as not to instruct the Committee.

Mr. WARD hoped the resolution would not be so modified. He thought the Committee ought to be instructed.

Mr. PRUYN moved to refer the resolution to the Committee on Ways and Means. Rejected—yeas 67, nays 69, as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Allison, Ames, Arnell, Bailey, Baldwin, Banks, Beaman, Bingham, Blaine, Blair, Boutwell, Brooks, Coburn, Churchill, Cornell, Covode, Delano, Driggs, Eliot, Ferris, Fields, Garfield, Griswold, Hawkins, Higbee, Hill, Hooper, Hurlburt, Jencks, Koontz, Lawrence, Lynch, Marvin, Maynard, McCarthy, Mercur, Moore, Morrill, Mullins, Mungen, Myers, O'Neill, Paine, Plants, Pomeroy, Poland, Pruyn, Robertson, Spaulding, Sawyer, Schenck, Shellabarger, Smith, Starkweather, Stevens (Pa.), Stokes, Taylor, Taffee, Twichell, Upson, Van Wyck, Washburne (Wis.), Washburne, (Ill.,) Washburne (Mass.,) Williams (Pa.,) Wilson (Pa.,) Woodbridge—67.

Mr. PRICE offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Appropriations be instructed to inquire into the expediency of appropriating $50,000,000 to take up the matured and maturing indebtedness of the United States which is payable in currency as the same may become due, said amount to be taken from the coin in the Treasury, to be sold for that purpose, and providing by law that no new indebtedness shall be incurred by the United States by sale or issue of its bonds or notes or other securities until the coin reserved in the Treasury is reduced to $25,000,000, said Committee to report by bill or otherwise

Mr. ALLISON asked Mr. Price to modify the resolution so as to instruct the Committee to make such report.

Mr. PRICE declined, thinking the resolution better as it was.

Mr. INGERSOLL moved to lay the resolution on the table, which was negatived.

Mr. SPALDING moved to amend by striking out the Committee of Appropriation and inserting Committee of Ways and Means, which was agreed to.

The resolution so amended was agreed to.

The morning hour having expired, the House proceeded to the consideration of the report of the Conference Committee on the bill removing political disabilities from several hundred persons in Southern States, the question being on Mr. Broomall's motion to reconsider the vote of Friday last rejecting the report.

The vote was reconsidered and the report adopted by a two-thirds vote of 98 to 44.

Allison, Ames, Anderson, Arnell, Ashley, Bailey, Boker, Baldwin, Banks, Beman, Beatty, Benjamin, Benton, Bingham, Blain, Blair, Boutwell, Broomall, Buckland, Butler, Churchill, Clarks, (Ohio) Cook, Connell, Delano, Dixon Donnelly, Driggs, Eckley, Eggleston, Ela, Eliott, Farnsworth, Ferry, Ferris, Field, Garfield, Griswold, Harding, Hull, Hooper, Hubbard, Hurlburd, Jencks, Judd, Kelsey, Ketcham, Koontz, Lawrence, Lincoln, Logan, Loughridge, Lynch, Mallory, Marvin, McCarthy, Mercur, Moorhead, Morrill, Myers, Newcomb, O'Neill, Paine, Peters Pile, Plants, Poland, Palsey, Pomeroy, Raum, Robertson, Sawyer, Schenck, Scofield, Seleye, Shanks, Smith, Spalding, Stevens (Pa.,) Stewart, Stokes, Taylor, Thomas, Twitchell, Upson, Washburne (Mis.,) Washburne, (Ills.,) Washburne, (Ind.,) Washburne, (Mass.,) Welker, Wilson, (Iowa,) Wilson (O.,) Winslow, Woodbridge, Woodward, Speaker.

Mr. STEVENS, (Pa.,) objected.

Mr. ARCHER introduced a joint resolution tendering the thanks of Congress to Capt. D. McDougal. Referred to the Committee on Naval Affairs.

Mr. SCHENCK then moved to go into Committee of the Whole on the special tax bill.

The SPEAKER reminded the House of the terms of the order, that no other business, except reports of Committees on enrolled bills, would be in order till the tax bill was disposed of. The order, however, would not exclude the reception of messages from the President or Senate, the action of the House on a veto message, which was a constitutional obligation, or the right of a member to be sworn in.

Mr. ELDRIDGE suggested the case of another impeachment resolution.

The SPEAKER said he would rule upon the question if it came up.

Mr. ELDRIDGE added, he did not know but that it might come up from the Committee now having the matter under consideration.

Mr. GARFIELD inquired whether business could not be done by unanimous consent?

The SPEAKER replied that certainly it could be.

On motion of Mr. SCHENCK, the first reading of the bill was dispensed with.

Mr. ROBINSON inquired whether it would be in order for him to offer a substitute for the bill, which substitute he held in his hand, and which covered all the ground that the House wished to act on.

The SPEAKER said it would be in order to do so in the Committee of the Whole.

The House then, at four o'clock, went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. BLAINE in the chair, and proceeded to the consideration of the tax bill, general debate being limited to one hour.

Mr. SCHENCK addressed the Committee in explanation of the bill.

He stated that in addition to the tax of sixty cents per gallon on distilled spirits, the Committee had provided what it called special taxes, each distiller of fifty barrels or less paying two hundred dollars a year as a special tax, and four dollars as a further special tax upon each barrel over fifty. The tax on retail dealers is fixed at twenty-five and fifty cents, two thousand and one thousand dollars, according to business. The bill also proposed a tax of five dollars per day on each distillery capable of mashing and fermenting a hundred bushels of grain each day, and three dollars a day additional for each hundred bushels. Adding all the taxes together, the tax on distilled spirits would amount to about one dollar per gallon, and produce from sixty-five to seventy-five million dollars.

The hour for debate having expired, the Clerk proceeded to read the bill by sections for amendment.

Mr. VAN WYCK moved to amend the first section by reducing the tax on whisky from sixty to fifty cents.

Without action the Committee rose, and on motion of Mr. SCHENCK it was ordered that the Committee of the Whole take a recess daily from half-past four to half-past seven.

A message from the Senate announced the passage of the Arkansas bill over the President's veto.

Adjourned.

Indian Troubles Resuming—An Encounter with the Navajoes—Murderer Captured—Depredations of the Sioux.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette]

ST. LOUIS, June 22.—A Denver dispatch says: In a fight at Apache Springs, between forty soldiers and a band of Navajoe Indians, six of the latter were killed and one soldier wounded.

William Barry, the soldier who killed Captain Speer, of the English army, on the steamer Octavia, while ascending the Mississippi river last year, has been brought from Fort Stevenson to Yancton, where he will be tried for murder.

Advices from the Missouri river say the Indians were quite troublesome about Fort Buford. Near Fort Benton the Sioux were continuing their depredations, and had driven much stock away from the mouth of Muscle Shell river. Several wood choppers had been killed, and a number of boats fired into at Camp Coola, midway between Forts Benton and Buford, a new military post. The Indians had driven off all the stock and killed two soldiers, and the soldiers killed about twenty Indians.

A large party of friendly Grosoeaters were encamped near Fort Buford, and had several white children with them, captured in Montana in 1862. Several hundred Santee Indians came near Fort Berthold last month to steal horses, but were whipped and driven away by a friendly tribe living near. Several of the Santees were killed in their retreat. The Santees killed and scalped an Englishman and a half breed. Hundreds of the Indians who had participated in the Minnesota massacre were near Fort Berthold, openly hostile and defiant.

The War in Hayti—Desperate Battle Fought—Solnave Holds Out.

HAVANA, June 21.—The civil war in Hayti continues with unabated violence. The forces of Generals Preton and Taubert had united with General Nissage and with large reinforcements from Cacos the forces had commenced the siege of Fort Alexdre, the last stronghold of Solnave. A proposition had been made to General Solnave to resign the Dictatorship which he had assumed and retain the Presidency, but it was not entertained.

Ex-President Cabral, of St. Domingo, with his followers, had joined the revolutionists in Hayti in revenge for the assistance given by Solnave to Gen. Baez.

The latest news from Port-Au-Prince is that Solnave has just fought a desperate battle with Cacos, in which he was victorious.

News from St. Domingo is meagre. The Government is acting in the most despotic manner, and arrests and expulsions continued. It was reported that Gen. Baez was alarmed by the news from Hayti, as he had reason to expect the invasion of St. Domingo by ex-President Cabral with an army of Haytiens after the defeat of Solnave.

An arrival from St. Thomas reports that in consequence of the recent negro riot in the Island of St. John, the Danish legal authorities had instituted the most arbitrary proceedings to secure the punishment of the offenders, and to prevent any future disturbance.

—At Detroit, Michigan, the election for directors of the Michigan Central Railroad, yesterday, resulted in the election of James F. Joy, Detroit; J. W. Brooks, Nathaniel Thayer, Sidney Bartlett, J. W. Forbes, Boston; Erastus Corning, Albany; G. F. Tolman, Moses Tayler, Edward Jones, New York.

—Hon Anson Burlingame and a portion of the Chinese Embassy have arrived at New York, from Washington, for the purpose of attending a public dinner to-day.

Nominations by the President—Wm. M. Evarts for Attorney-General—Secretary McCulloch and the President—Surratt Released from Custody—Pay of Army Officers—New Impeachment Articles—Present to General Grant.

[By Telegraph to Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 22, 1868.

NOMINATIONS BY THE PRESIDENT.

The President to-day nominated to the Senate Wm. M. Evarts, United States Attorney General; John T. Robeson, Consul to St. Thomas; Edward C. Johnson, son of Reverdy Johnson, Assistant Secretary of the United States Legation at London; John E. Mumford, Collector of Internal Revenue for the Third District of Virginia.

SURRATT RELEASED FROM CUSTODY.

The case of John H. Surratt came up in the Criminal Court this morning. The United States District Attorney said the Government was not ready to proceed with the trial, and asked a continuance. This the prisoner's counsel opposed. Judge Wylie, who presided at the Court, said that satisfactory reasons must be shown for another continuance. In his opinion it would be unjust to remand the prisoner to jail again, unless good reasons could be shown by the Government for so doing. District Attorney Carrington then gave his reasons for continuing the case, but they were, in the opinion of Judge Wylie, not sufficient to justify him in holding the prisoner over again; therefore he would discharge the prisoner, subject, however, to the new indictments which had been found against him. The counsel for the Government said they were ready to proceed with the new trial, but the prisoner's counsel said this indictment had come upon them suddenly and totally unexpected, and they could not therefore say that they would act as the prisoner's counsel in the coming trial owing to their legal engagements. They therefore would ask the court to postpone the case until the prisoner could procure suitable counsel and prepare for his trial, and after some further arguments on both sides the court postponed the trial until next Monday, June 13th, and admitted the prisoner to bail until that time in the sum of $20,000. Surratt was present in the court room looking very thin and pale from his confinement.

Surratt was released this afternoon on bail until Monday next. His bondsmen are John J. Boyne, R. H. Trunnell, Owen Thorn and Michael Shea, in the sum of $20,000.

LONDON, June 22.—A meeting was called by the Liberals to-night at Guild Hall to consider the Irish Church question. The Hall was crowded, and the Lord Mayor presided, but it soon became evident that the majority of those present were Tories. As soon as the proceedings commenced great disturbance was created, and mingled cheers and hisses rendered the voices of the speakers on the platform inaudible to all except the reporters. Wm. Lubbeck moved the first resolve, declaring that the Irish Church should cease to exist and opposing any amendment of the Suspensory bill now pending in the House of Lords. A general uproar followed the reading of the resolve. Fights took place in various parts of the hall and the disturbance threatened to become serious. At this juncture the Lord Mayor retired from the Chair, and with a number of gentlemen on the platform left the hall. The Tories then rushed upon the platform and held it for a short time. They addressed the audience in an excited manner, declaring the bulk of the English people were opposed to the Suspensory bill. After comparative quiet had been restored, speeches were made in support of the bill by R. W. Crawford, M. P., Mr. Goshen, M. P., Wm. Lawrence, M. P., and Mr. Harcourt. They were repeatedly interrupted, and were unable to proceed with the reading of other resolves. The meeting ended in disorder without taking any vote on the resolves.

The American vessels were decked with a profusion of bunting and all the shipping in the harbor gaily decorated with flags. The King and Queen of Belgium, accompanied by a brilliant retinue of the principal officers of the government and notables of the kingdom, passed the fleet in review. The scene was very fine. All the batteries of the fleet burst into salutes and the seamen who manned yards cheered with great enthusiasm. The salutes were returned from the fortifications and Belgian men-of-war, and the cheers taken up and repeated by the crowds in the boats and on shore. The King and Queen were highly gratified with the display, and Admiral Farragut has every reason to be satsified with the success of the review.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Young Men's Christian Association.

The thirtieth annual Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of America which is to convene at Detroit to-morrow will doubtless be a gathering of importance second to none of a religious character since the holding of the last great meeting at Montreal. It is expected that one thousand delegates will be present, representing over four hundred Associations.

The following named gentlemen have been chosen to represent the Pittsburgh Association: H. K. Porter, Rev. S. F. Scovil, Arthur Bell, T. K. Levee, E. P. Long, S. P. Harbisen, W. J. Jennings, J. Emery Sellers, A. B. Riggs and E. T. Cook.

They will leave the city this afternoon, arrive at Cleveland in the evening and reach Detroit to-morrow morning for breakfast.

A large number of delegates are expected to arrive in the city by the Cincinnati Express train, from Philadelphia and other points, at 9 o'clock this morning, and will spend a few hours with their friends of the Association here and attend the noon prayer meeting, when the Convention will be the special subject of prayer.

Wooden Buildings.

An ordinance, prohibiting the erection of wooden buildings within the old city limits having passed councils, and become a law April 25th, in which the Street Commissioners are authorized to institute proceedings against all persons violating the same, the question arose as to whether buildings of part wood came under its provisions. The City Solicitor has decided that they do, and the Street Commissioners have notified a number of persons who where putting up frame houses and filling them in with brick that they would have to be torn down, among whom are the following: Mr. Groves, a frame kitchen, Congress street; Mr. Costar, a frame and brick building, Grant street; Henry Frew, a brick and frame, at the corner of High and Fifth street extension.

Festival in Manchester.

Our readers should bear in mind the festival of the Manchester Presbyterian Church, corner of Franklin and Market streets, which opens to-night. Extensive arrangements have been made for the comfort and convenience of all visitors, and it is under the superintendence of the ladies of the church, which is a sufficient guarantee that the affair will be of a first class order. Everything in the way of refreshments has been amply provided, and nothing has been left undone to make it a complete success. The passenger cars pass within a short distance of the place every few minutes. We anticipate for all who may attend an exceedingly pleasant and enjoyable time.

Man Trap.

We would like to call the attention of whoever has authority in the case to a dangerous man trap in the shape of a wooden covering over a coal hole in the Fifth street sidewalk, nearly in front of the Opera House. Passing along there yesterday a citizen struck his foot against it causing the apparatus to turn over, and but for the timely assistance of a friendly arm, a tumble into the cellar below, added to a broken limb, might have been the consequence. Perhaps a suit for damages against the city, or whoever is responsible, would be avoided in the future by a little attention to this apparently trivial matter.

—Old Joseph Andrade is dead. He has for years been one of the curiosities of Philadelphia, where he was known as a millionaire, miser and agent for Rothschilds. Every one knew him and his little thin legs and huge shoes, his weazened face and kindly smile, and now he is gone. He died on Thursday, of apoplexy. Although he has been known throughout life as a miser, there is many a charity that will miss his constant contributions. He left but four hundred thousand dollars in spite of his reputation, and as he left no will, it all goes to relatives in France.

—The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin perpetrates the following puns and queries on the recent aquatic fiasco:

Because Coulter broke his scull, ought he to be ex-scull-pated?

Coulter, they say, is a gentleman and a sculler. Hamill being in a cedar boat, was naturally a suc-cedar.

It kills off scullers to put them on the Scull-kill river.

The Bulletin devil avers that the latest version of Foul Play was given on the Schuylkill on Thursday.

When Coulter broke his oar on Friday there was a new dam thrown across the Schulkill at the Falls and else-swear.

The occurrence on the Schuylkill was not unusual. Coulter merely got into a row and had his scull broken.

There were but few negroes at the match, notwithstanding the rowers were known as cullered men.

It seems to us that Coulter had better go up to the mining regions and break oar for the rest of his life.

They say that the real reason why the sculling match failed was that both Hamill and Coulter had trained themselves so that they were naturally row-bust.

The Washington correspondent of the Worcester Spy says he speaks what he knows, when he says that ever since the passage of the Reconstruction acts Mr. Chase has directly employed all possible agencies to get the Republican party (until recent events), and more especially the new vote of the South, committed to him. One of the sub rosa difficulties against which the Congressional Republican Committee has to contend with in the management of the Southern campaigns has been the untiring energy of Mr. Chase's friends to use its machinery for the advancement of their favorite. The Committee's aim was to reconstruct the South, not canvass for any special Presidential candidate. The correspondent then details some of the methods which were used, with the previous express sanction of Judge Chase, to obtain his nomination at Chicago, and failing in that, to secure the negro vote of the South for him as an independent candidate.

The New Orleans Republican says that neither in Louisiana nor any other Southern State is there the slightest reason to believe that Mr. Chase could command any considerable number of colored votes. If Mr. Chase should be the Democratic candidate for President he would get no more votes of colored men in the South than Hancock or Pendleton, while the colored men, who, influenced by intimidation, voted against ratification of the new Constitution and for the Democratic candidates, will in elections held under State laws, and protected by a well organized and thoroughly disciplined State militia, vote as their inclinations dictate, for Grant and Colfax and other Republican candidates. Mr. Chase cannot divide the colored vote of the South, and that idea may as well be abandoned.

Patti has appeared in a new role in Paris, viz: as passer of the plate, or bag, at a great church ceremonial—the recent Mass of Prince Poniatowski, sung at the Church of St. Eustache, in aid of the poor. Patti was one of the fifteen lovely and distinguished quetuses who carried around the velvet, gold-embroidered money-bags for the collection. An enormous sum was contributed. Among her associates were the Princess de Metternich, Madame Poniatowski and Madame Walewski, the last named exciting the liveliest admiration, "robed in green velvet and sable, a mantle of golden hair streaming from beneath her chignon to her waist."

New Railroad.—An engineer corps has already commenced operations on a new railroad between Reedsville and Allenville, Mifflin county, and the work will be pushed forward with the greatest vigor. The new road will be fifteen miles in length, known as the Kishacoquillas railroad, and connect at Reedsville with the Mifflin and Centre railroad, passing through a valley abounding in agricultural and mineral wealth, and unsurpassed for lovely scenery. The new road will add a fresh source of prosperity, and furnish an outlet to the vast resources of the section it traverses.

SECURITY AND COMFORT FOR THE TRAVELING COMMUNITY.

J. B. HARRIS' SAFETY FIRE JACKET, Car Heater and Moderator,

For SMOKE AND HOT AIR FLUES, dispensing with the use of Stoves and Fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached.

Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended. It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired. I will sell, on application, rights to manufacture or to use the above invention; also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges, either by State or county. J. B. The Allegheny river rose several inches during Sunday night and yesterday, and was still rising slowly last evening with about five feet in the channel. The weather here continues cloudy and unsettled with frequent showers of rain.

The J. N. McCullough, from Cincinnati, is due here to-morrow, and will return as usual on Wednesday.

Capt. W. S. Evans of the firm Evans, Dallas & Gilmore, has received intelligence to the effect that the Andrew Ackley, arrived at Fort Benton on the 17th.

The St. Louis Republican, of Saturday, says: Business, which has been most remarkably good and active during the entire season, shows no particular signs of any serious diminishing before the usual fall trade sets in. Freights continue abundant for all points, and, although rates are very low, yet as the steamboats generally are having good trips "both ways," as a consequence balances although small are on the right of the ledger. The Pauline Carroll cleared yesterday.

A late Nashville paper says: On Wednesday last Capt. John Cartwright and family and several relatives were poisoned from partaking of food which it was supposed contained arsenic. Having partaken of a hearty dinner, Capt. Cartwright and wife, Capt. R. L. Dismukes, Mrs. Tindall and old negro woman shortly afterward were taken suddenly ill, and it was evident that the serious illness was the result of poison. A physician was sent for, who gave it as his opinion that arsenic had been mixed with the food. The proper antidotes were prescribed, and yesterday the entire family, with the exception of the negro woman, were in a fair way of recovery. The affair is still shrouded in mystery, and how the arsenic was administered is unaccountable.

The second mate of the Dexter got into a quarrel with one of the negro deck hands and shot him dead, below Baton Rouge. After the deed was committed the mate cut loose the boat's yawl and made his escape. After he cut loose the yawl the boat was stopped, rounded to and for the yawl, and just reached it in time to see the mate jump on shore and take to the woods. Some half dozen of the negro hands of the boat gave chase and were out some time, when two of them returned and ther two kept on in pursuit. Another account says that after the mate had got ashore he was aeen to fire on a negro who attempted to stop him; also upon a white man.

A St. Louis telegram, under date of Saturday, says: The storm expected last night did not occur, but the weather is much cooler. The passenger receipts of the Par. goud, from New Orleans, amounted to over $5,000. She had on the trip up 150 passengers. The owners of the Galatea have not decided what next to do with her. The Missouri was stationary at Omaha yesterday. The Octavia and Antelope arrived there from Benton. The Importer arrived at Benton on the 15th, and Ida on the 16th. GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 140⅛@140¼.

THE Mississippi election commenced yesterday.

THE report of the Conference Committee on the bill releasing a large number of late rebels from political disabilities, has at last been concurred in by both Houses, and the bill becomes a law subject to the President's approval.

THE Nashville Press says, of Gen. LONGSTREET that "he was one of the ablest of all the fighting Generals of the rebel confederacy; but he sustains the reconstruction policy of Congress, and is, therefore, denounced by the stay at home cowards, as a traitor.

SURRATT has been discharged from the former indictment against him, but another bill has been found against him, upon which he is charged upon a conspiracy to murder the late President LINCOLN. Upon this new indictment, he has been admitted to bail in the sum of $20,000, and is at large.

IT IS a matter of congratulation that the Arkansas bill has passed over the veto of the President in the Senate yesterday, and the entire loyal nation will thank that body for its prompt and decisive action. We welcome Arkansas back to the Union, being the first of the reconstructed States restored to position after having purged herself of the sin of rebellion. May the good work go on until all of the late rebel States shall be purified and permitted to enjoy represesentation and place in the councils of the nation.

"THE danger to our institutions consists less in the fact that negroes have been admitted to the suffrage than in the fact that so large a part of our white population have become imbued with sentiments hostile to free government."—N. Y. World, June 19th.

That is to say, Democratic leaders find the most serious objection to Universal Suffrage to be, not that it confers the right upon the colored man, but that too many white men enjoy it. This is certainly frank, but it is entirely in keeping with that Democracy which already hoots at the idea of "a white man's government." How and when do they propose to disfranchise the obnoxious white man?

IT is stated that the President will issue a proclamation of general amnesty the morning of the Fourth of July. This will be Mr. JOHNSON's final bid to the New York Convention, in his own behalf first, and for his friend, the Chief Justice, afterwards. The proclamation will embrace all the exceptions made by the proclamation of August, including all army and navy officers above the rank of Brigadier General in the army, and Captain in the navy; but will not, of course, affect officers of the Confederacy now under indictment. General Lee will, therefore, be included in the proclamation now under contemplation.

OUR ambitious Chief Justice is conforming his political opinions to the requirements of the situation with feverish alacrity. His latest bid for Southern support reports him to be in favor of withdrawing all troops, from their present proximity to Ku-Klux-Klans and unreconstructed rebels in those States, "in order to give the people an opportunity to express their opinions through the ballot-box unawed by the presence of the military." He also declares his disapproval of the iron-clad oath, as "too strictly partizan in its character." Mr. CHASE means to secure the Southern vote at New York, if it can be done. He evidently considers it the essential and only condition to his success. In this, he is not far out of the way, for the vote of those States is likely to be decisive of the nomination.

THE New York World has begun to commend principles in the Republican platform of 1856. In Western Pennsylvania, the Democracy are getting on still faster, one of their journals only a day or two since coming up very handsomely to the financial resolution adopted by the Republicans last month at Chicago. Declaring that "the letter and the spirit of the bond must be preserved inviolate" it is evident that the true significance of these words has at last been discovered by curious Democrats. This is decidedly progress in the right direction, but we are happy to know that the people are travelling still faster on that line, and are rallying, irrespective of former parties, to the support of GRANT and COLFAX, with a quiet but irresistible harmony never before known in a Presidential canvass.

THE FUNCTION OF THE MINORITY.

Under all systems of government conforming to modern ideas, no matter in what manner the supreme authority may be distributed and exercised, the Majority and Minority sustain definite relations to each other, and mutually modify the course of political action. Even in what are called absolute monarchies, this rule holds good. In feudal times, the few contrived to govern the many, in the name of God and for their own benefit. But the French Revolution, whatever else it did, put an end, in most European countries, to that kind of usurpation. Imperial thrones now get set up in virtue of universal suffrage, and are maintained by standing armies of so vast proportions as fitly to represent the sentiments of the whole people. When a voter stands behind each musket, it is safe to conclude that the monarch who rules does so in obedience to the popular will. In such governments, however, the emperor or king, though conscious of the co-operation of the Majority, does not dare press the Minority to the last extreme, or anything like it; for he cannot tell how soon, through the fickleness of public opinion, the Minority may be converted into the Majority, barricades go up in the streets of the capital and the army fraternise with the populace.

In strictly representative governments the co-relations of the Majority and Minority are more clearly recognized and their action upon each other provided for. The rights and responsibilities of governing belong to the Majority, while the duty of criticising and holding in check pertains to the Minority. It is sometimes difficult to tell whether the Majority or the Minority renders the most valuable service to a nation.

It is in consequence of this action and reaction of Majorities and Minorities upon each other that the true balance of government is maintained. Of course, such action and reaction prevent the Majority from fully carrying out any Policy to which it may stand pledged and actually have at heart. This principle was admirably illustrated during the long period, before the Rebellion, in which the Democrats had almost undisputed sway in every department of the government. During that protracted term they failed fully to carry out every Policy by espousing which they won the popular confidence. This was not owing, as was sometimes testily charged, to inherent duplicity, but to the natural and healthful influence of a numerous and intelligent Minority. In striking a balance, it would be fair to decide that the Minority rendered quite as important services to the republic as the Majority.

Whoever will turn back to the official records of the debates in Congress during that period, and particularly the latter part of it, will be strangely impressed by the arrogance of the Majority; by the assumption of its members that they alone had a right to be heard; and the brutal threats of personal violence with which they constantly interlarded their objurgations of the Minority. In the whole history of representative bodies there is nothing approaching this exhibition of fiendish malignity except the course of the Jacobins in the French Constituent Assembly. Even in the excitement of those stormy debates, the scenes enacted were sufficiently revolting; but the considerate man—respectful of his own rights and of the rights of others—who shall now peruse those American controversies cannot help feeling the motions of intolerable loathing and disgust.

It happens, unfortunately for the country that the party which was then in the Majority have carried the same habit of coarse abuse with them into the Minority, where they have been during the last eight years.

Perhaps at no period in this country and rarely in any other, have the Minority in the national council been so powerless as since the Rebellion broke out. This has resulted from special causes. Prior to 1860 the Democrats had held possession of the Government for so long a time that they imagined it to belong to them in fee simple, and that the most unconstitutional thing their opponents could do was to carry a presidential election. They felt that they alone were "the people;" that to them exclusively pertained the right to construe and interpret the constitution, to devise Policies, and to consolidate them into laws; that the Republicans were good enough to bear the burdens of the government, but not to participate in its honors: much less to impart to it direction and momentum. That was a comfortable delusion for the Democrats to cherish. It gave them a wonderful conceit of themselves, and inspired them with a corresponding contempt for the Republicans. Being a delusion, however, it was destined to be dissipated; and coming down from such self-exaltation is not pleasant. The result was that when the Republicans elected Mr. LINCOLN to the Presidency, half the Democrats broke out into open, flagrant Rebellion. They felt and acted precisely as royal Princes do when their assumed prerogatives are denied and obedience refused. While the other half remained behind, they constantly gave tokens that their feelings and principles were with the insurgents and that they would join them but for the fact that they were living in States whose local governments were strongly against them. These are the leading facts which have made the Minority in the United States less powerful, during the last two presidential terms, than ever any Minority was before at Washington.

Some years ago the Democrats introduced a new rule, bearing upon Minorities in their National Conventions. This rule provides that two-thirds of the members of the body must vote for any candidate in order to make his nomination regular and valid. This gives the Minority a negative control; that is, the power to declare who shall not be nomiasted. Nothing can be plainer than that this rule is in violation of the elementary principle of Democracy, which is that the Majority shall govern. Its adoption was a step towards government by prescription; and consequently indicated the actual departure of the party from genuine Democracy. This was all the more significant because it happened at the precise time when the Democratic party, through the action of its leaders, had entered into the conspiracy against government by the people, which soon after flamed out into a tremendous war

Whether, under the altered condition of affairs, the Democrats will repeal the two-thirds rule, admits of speculation. The friends both of CHASE and PENDLETON would favor the repeal if they were alike confident of commanding a bare Majority of the July Convention; but neither seems to be confident of having the ascendency. The radical Democrats, so long as they remain uncertain of the possession of power, will not consent to the repeal, because, while the rule exists they can prevent, if they will, the nomination of Mr. CHASE. The friends of Mr. CHASE are probably in the same dilemma. Hence, it is reasonable to conclude that the rule will stand for the present as a monument to mark how far the Democracy has departed in favor of government by Minorities.

WANTED—SOME OPINIONS.

The weak but plucky opposition in Western Pennsylvania hereby advertise for a limited stock of ideas. They have managed thus far to lose several important political battles, while carrying opinions of a positive character, but can afford to do so no longer. The managers of their recent County Convention, who were charged with the manufacture of principles, adjourned without accomplishing their work, inasmuch as they comprehended the situation, and, with their limited stock of fresh ideas, shrank from the task of creating the necessary political food for the consumption of their constituents during the present campaign. It is not known what character or shade of opinion will be accepted, but no proposals will be considered unless bearing for or against greenbacks and the negro. It was on these themes that the ingenuity of the party leaders failed, but, nevertheless, they must enter largely into the canvass. Sealed proposals should be addressed to the Chairman of the Democratic National Convention. Pending the awards all faithful Democrats are urgently requested to keep their mouths shut until they may be informed as to which way they must shout.

THE NEW CONSOLS AND TAXATION.

It is understood that a bill, the result of careful preparation by leading financial members of the two Houses, may be introduced in Congress this week, which authorizes the issue of two thousand millions of dollars in "bonds of the consolidated debt of the United States," to bear five per cent. interest, payable principal and interest in gold, redeemable after twenty years at the public option and maturing in fifty years, and to be exempt from taxation. One half of one cent to be semi-annually deducted from the interest, to form a sinking-fund for the payment of the national debt. Existing securities may be converted into these bonds, which may also be used for banking purposes. It is believed that these long bonds, at the lower rate of interest, but with all cavil as to the mode of their redemption obviated, and meeting the question of taxation by the old and familiar method of taking money out of one pocket and putting it into the other, will be satisfactory to the treasury, to the public creditors and to the non-bond-holding tax-payers. A strong effort will be made to enact this measure into a law before the close of the session.

IN speaking of the contest in the 20th District for the Republican Congressional Convention, the Meadville Republican says:

We learn that Mr. Geo. W. Lathy is the successful candidate for the nomination in Clarion county. The candidates in the field now are: S. Newton Pettis, Crawford; Geo. W. Lathy, Clarion; W. T. McAdam, Mercer; G. W. Gilfallan, Venango. The contest in Clarion, according to the Banner, was really between Mr. Pettis and McAdam, although ostensibly between Captain Fox and Mr. Lathy. Fox being beaten leaves the contest practically between McAdam, Gilfillan and Lathy, one of whom is pretty certain to be nominated. Personally we know nothing of Mr. Lathy, but we hear that he is a very worthy and capable Republican, and his nomination would be creditable to the party. Mr. Gilfillan is an earnest and active young Republican, and would be very acceptable to the oil interest. Mr. McAdam is a gentleman of high character, and would be the strongest candidate in the field with the voters of Mercer county. As Mr. Trout will most likely be the Democratic candidate, McAdam would be his most formidable opponent.

THE New York Sun has the following in regard to the Chief Justice:

"No Democrat need hesitate to give his support to Judge Chase on the score of principle. 'These suspenders,' said an auctioneer, 'are elastic—long enough for any man, short enough for any boy, and warranted to fit.' In short, Judge Chase is willing to go as far as he can in every direction, for everything, and against everything, if he can only be elected President. He does it, too, with such dignity and such perfect consistency that no one can find any fault. The Democracy cannot have a more faultless candidate."

"THE Democratic party, as a national party, can neither oust the negroes from the suffrage nor control their votes. If either is ever done, it will be by the white citizens of the States in which they live, each State acting for itself, and judging for itself of the most opportune occasion for making the effort. The mission of the national Democratic party is different. It is to render white voting less mischievous than it has been for the last eight years."—N. Y. World, June 19th.

High Democratic authority thus disposes of the foolish clamor of the underlings of the party, for "a white man's government." Their warfare is hereafter to be directed against the obnoxious white voters. This is worth remembering.

SENATOR HENDERSON, of Missouri, marries Miss FOOTE, of Vermont, this week. It is also announced that Mr. ELISHA FOOTE, father of the fiancee, is to receive the appointment of Commissioner of Patents.

THE first count of the new indictment against John H. Surratt charges him with conspiring with Booth, Paine, Harold, O'Laughlin, Arnold, Atzerodt and Mrs. Surratt, to murder Abraham Lincoln. The second count charges him with conspiracy to capture Mr. Lincoln and deliver him as a prisoner into the possession, custody and control of certain persons whose names are unknown to the Grand Jury.

The Kansas Pacific Railway.

To the Editors of the Pittsburgh Gazette:—

GENTLEMEN—This most important of any national work ever undertaken by the Government and people of the United States gains rapidly in popular favor as it becomes better understood. Very quietly, but with great energy, it has been pushed forward until upwards of four hundred miles have been finished, which is as far as the acts of Congress of 1866 extended the authority and aid of the Government. This portion of the road extends from the Missouri river up the Valley of the Kansas and Smoky Hill, (one river), almost directly from east to west, through the midst of the State of Kansas, one of the most fertile, beautiful and healthy regions in our country.

From the point to which it has been carried, (near the Western border of Kansas,) it is the intention of the Company to continue it in a southwest direction, through New Mexico to the Rio Grande; thence westwardly, on or near the 35th parallel, through the centre of Arizona, to the Great Colorado, which is the eastern border of California in that latitude. From the Colorado to San Francisco the line runs in a northwest direction through the great valley of Southern California, the marvelous productiveness of which is known to the whole civilized world.

The length of this line—which has all been carefully surveyed—is 1950 miles from the Missouri, at Kansas City, to San Francisco, which is just about the same as the Union Pacific Railroad, which begins on the west bank of the Missouri, at Omaha, and terminates at Sacramento, 120 miles northwest of San Francisco. That 120 miles must be made by steamers on the Bay of San Francisco and the Sacramento river. The bay, which stretches far inland, lies between those cities; and to unite them by rail would require a line of between two and three hundred miles in length, for it would have to run almost entirely round the bay. In this the Kansas Pacific line has a great advantage over the other, for it runs directly to San Francisco—which lies on the southern shore of the bay near its entrance from the ocean—without any deviation from its proper course. The Omaha and Sacramento line is being prosecuted by two separate and independent companies, the Union Pacific in the east, and the Central Pacific in the west. These two companies expect to meet in their operations somewhere in the neighborhood of Salt Lake, and, uniting, form one line of road from the Missouri to Sacramento.

There are many reasons why the Kansas Pacific Railway ought to be pushed forward steadily and vigorously, some of which may very properly be set forth in brief terms in this connection. This ought to be done—

Because so large a section of it is already completed and is in very successful operation, paying well, and causing the fine region through which it passes to fill up rapidly with an intelligent and thriving population, who already enjoy in their new homes all the blessings and benefits of an advanced civilization.

Because the business it has already done for the Government, at rates greatly below those paid for wagon transportation, has more than reimbursed to the national treasury the amount of interest on the bonds loaned by the Government to the Company; so that thus far, instead of being an expense and burden, it has been a pecuniary advantage to the Government of many thousands of dollars. See Report of the Committee on Military Affairs of the House of Representatives, of March 4th, 1868, which, upon a careful estimate, puts this saving at $846,382 per 1867.

Because, in the opinion of the highest military officers of the nation, it is the only way in which the murders and depredations of the savages who still roam almost unchecked over the vast and valuable region across which it is proposed to carry this road—extending from Kansas to California—can be successfully prevented—a method more effectual, more humane and more economical than any other that can be devised. See letters of Generals Sherman and Sherridan, addressed to General Grant, and by him endorsed and trsnsmitted through the Secretary of War to Congress.

Because the country through which the surveyed line runs is well adapted to railroad purposes; and is, with trifling exceptions, abundantly supplied with timber for ties, fuel and other purposes, with water, and, in New Mexico especially, it runs through or near to an extensive and inexhaustible field of mineral coal of good quality. See Report of the Survey of 1867, made by the engineers of the company.

Because the line of the road traverses throughout its entire length a region of great and varied resources, agricultural, pastoral and mineral, which will ensure to it a way trade of great and ever increasing magnitude, putting its success as a road beyond a peradventure, and rendering it reasonably certain that it will cost the government nothing more than a loan of its credit.

Because its construction will add immensely to the available area of our national domain and to the durable basis of taxable values, and thus, by diffusion, relatively lighten our already existing national burdens.

Because it will bring within easy reach of our people thousands and tens of thousands of mines of precious metals, which, with railroad facilities, can be worked profitably, but not without. Our present inconvertible paper currency is a standing attestation of how greatly these are needed.—See J. Ross Browne's Reports, and many others.

Because there are even now one hundred thousand people in New Mexico, (whose entire trade will be over this road,) awaiting its coming; while Arizona is rapidly filling up, and probably half the population of California are found south of the Bay of San Francisco, through whose midst this road will run. In addition to these, the people of Chihuahua, Sonora and Durango will trade with the outside world mainly over this road.

Because the line of this road is so happily located that it can be reached at its eastern end with almost equal facility by the great lines of trade and travel running westward from Boston and Portland, and from Baltimore and Washington, the basin of the Lakes or the valley of the Ohio. And then, in its great southwestern deflextion it is exactly in the right location to receive on this side of the mountains and of the Rio Grande other lines from important points on the Lower Mississippi and the Gulf of Mexico. It was this truly national feature of this enterprise which drew forth that recent strong and eloquent petition to Congress from sixty presidents and executive officers of leading railroads of the country, from Maine to Alabama, praying that the work may be continued and vigorously prosecuted. See maps.

Because this road, in its entire course from the Missouri to the Bay of San Francisco, will cross no formidable mountain range. In New Mexico the Rocky Mountains sink into a broad elevated plateau a little north of the line, and the great Sierra Nevada range breaks down in the same manner, on about the same parallel in southeastern California. The line of the road, therefore, runs round the great mountain ranges instead of over them, giving to it at once a better and more habitable country through which to run, and easier gradients.

Because—which is the most important consideration of all—this road can never be interrupted by snow nor endangered by avalanches. The climate on the most elevated table lands over which the line is carried, 6,000 to 7,000 feet above tide, is much like that of Eastern Tennessee, but is drier. Some snow falls, but it soon melts. The climate, both in summer and winter, is delightful and remarkably salubrious, so that gentlemen who have traveled over that great plateau, which reaches nearly across both New Mexico and Arizona in the direction of this line, express the opinion that when made accessible, it will become the great sanitarium of the country. Under these conditions the traffic on this road can be carried on with equal facility and safety at all seasons; and it need hardly be said to those who are well informed as to the character of the region further north, that on no other route from the eastern States to the Pacific can immunity from protracted interruptions and appalling dangers be hoped for.

Because this road in all its course, from the Missouri to the Pacific, passes through a very valuable region, but so remote from the line of the Omaha road that it coan never be of any benefit to it. On the meridian of the Rio Grande the two lines diverge to the distance of seven degrees of latitude—one being on the 35th parallel, the other on the 42d—and this distance is maintained until both enter California. The vast and various resources of Southern Colorado, and of New Mexico, and Arizona, can never be utilized until this road is made.

Because this road will open up avenues of trade with at least three of the northern States of Mexico, which are now destitute of any access to the world outside, worthy of the name. They are rich in mines of gold, silver and copper, in rare woods of great commercial value, and in tropical and semi-tropical fruits, &c. The commerce which will spring up between our country and those States will at once be large and very lucrative.

Because this road, by means of branches of moderate length, will put us into connection with the Pacific ocean at several points far south of San Francisco—Guaymas, on the Gulf, of California, San Diego, Los Angelos, &c., and also, directly on the main line, with the steamboat navigation of the Colorado river, about 500 miles this side of San Francisco.

Because, as a careful inspection of the map will show, this road is destined to be a great trunk line, from which branch lines will diverge in all directions, reaching towards the long coast lines of both oceans, and to all parts of the great interior.

I might add much more, but let these few suggestions suffice. The thoughtful reader can easily follow them out more fully into their details; and, although I have not particularly spoken of it among the reasons why this work ought to be pushed forward, the Philantropist and the Christian cannot fail to perceive that such a channel of intercourse would powerfully aid in the spread of a better civilization and a purer faith than many of the regions it will penetrate have hitherto enjoyed. J. C.

Are Secure Beyond any Contingency.

The Union Pacific Bonds run thirty years, for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July at the Company's Office in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold at maturity. The price is 102, and at the present rate of gold, they pay a liberal income on their cost.

The Company believe that these bonds, at the present date, are the cheapest security in the market, and reserve the right to advance the price at any time. Subscriptions will be received in New York.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., has produced a sheet-iron chimney which is made of three sheet-iron cylinders, the space between the outer and second one being filled with ashes, thus securing safety from fire. It is lighter and safer than brick.

DO NOT BE DECEIVED.

When the system is once affected it will not rally of its own accord; it needs help—it must be strengthened and invigorated; this is especially the case when the

KIDNEYS, BLADDER OR URINARY ORGANS

Are affected. For immediate relief and permanent cure,

DR. SARGENT'S

Diuretic or Backache Pills

Are a perfectly safe and reliable specific. This well known remedy has effected a large number of speedy and remarkable cures, and have never failed to give relief when taken according to directions.

Dr. Sargent's Backache Pills

Are purely vegetable, and contain no mercury or calomel. They do not exhaust the system, but on the contrary they act as a tonic, imparting new tone and vigor to the organs and strengthening the whole body. These Pills have stood the test of thirty-five years, and are still gaining in popularity.

LET US PROTECT OURSELVES.

The physical structure of the strongest human being is vulnerable everywhere. Our bodies are endowed by nature with a certain negative power, which protects them, to some extent, from unwholesome influences; but this protection is imperfect, and cannot be safely relied on in unhealthy regions, or under circumstances of more than ordinary danger. Therefore, it is wisdem; it is prudence; it is common sense to provide against such contingencies by taking an antidote in advance; in other words, by fortifying the system with HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS—the most complete protective against all the epidemic and endemic maladies that has ever been administered in any country. As a remedy for Dyspepsia, there is no medicine that will compare with it. Whoever suffers the pangs of indigestion, anywhere on the face of the earth where HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS can be procured, does so voluntarily; for, as surely as truth exists, this invaluable TONIC and ALTERATIVE would restore his disordered stomach to a healthy condition. To the nervous it is also especially recommended, and in cases of confirmed constipation it also affords speedy and permanent relief. In all cases of fever and ague the BITTERS is more potent than any amount of quinine, while the most dangerous cases of bilious fever yield to its wonderful properties. Those who have tried the medicine will never use another, for any of the ailments which the HOSTETTER BITTERS professes to subdue. To those who have not made the experiment we cordially recommend an early application to the BITTERS whenever they are stricken by disease of the digestive organs.

CURE OF FISTULA.

DR. KEYSER: I write to thank you for your kindness and scientific management of my disease, for which I called to consult you some time in January last. You will remember that I had a complication of diseases, which finally ended in a terrible fistula, which I had been advised to "let alone," on account of a harassing cough, which it was feared might fasten it on my lungs. I knew that the peculiar mode of treating diseases like mine was by a cutting operation, which, if successful at all, would naturally throw the disease upon the lungs or some other vital organ, on account of the suddenness of the cure and the immediate check to the discharge, which I believed was a salutary provision of nature to get rid of some morbid condition of the system. I feel perfectly satisfied that your method of treatment, purifying the system, and local applications to the fistulous part, must cure, if anything could, without cutting, which I find it did, and I am happy to report myself well in every particular, with sounder and better health than I have had for years. I would also add that the applications you made were almost painless, and have left me a new man, with all the energies and vigor of restored health.

Yours, gratefully, I—— C——.

One dwelling house, two stories high, with 12 rooms, 40x42 feet.

One dwelling, 28x40 feet, 8 rooms.
One " 18x26 " 2 "
One " 18x26 " 4 "
One " 18x26 " 3 "
One " 24x26 " 5 "

One Stable, 20x24 feet, 16 feet high; Blacksmith Shop and other outbuildings. This land is underlaid with stone coal and iron ore, and it has plenty of never-failing springs of water, besides the creek running through the entire premises, and will be sold cheap and on easy terms, to a good man with a little money.

10 LOTS ON BEDFORD AVENUE, each lot 20 by 100 feet, on which is erected four two story frame dwelling houses, of 6 rooms and hall each. These lots embrace a full square of ground, fronting 200 feet on Bedford avenue, and bounded on each end by a street, with an 18 feet alley in the rear. On the premises is a pump of lasting and excellent water, and the surface of the lots is level and needs neither filling nor grading to prepare them for building purposes, and being in a section of the city where property is increasing very rapidly in value, make them desirable for an investment, especially as the present houses rent for enough to pay a good interest on the sum asked for the whole property. Call soon on the undersigned and secure a cheap, safe and paying investment.

Also, A FARM OF 160 ACRES of good land, situated in East Wheatfield township, Indiana Co., Pa., 90 acres of which is cleared land, in good cultivation, 20 acres being in excellent meadow. The improvements are a two-story frame dwelling house of 8 rooms, a frame bank barn, 36x60 feet, with stabling underneath, and other outbuildings, all in good repair. It is in a good neighborhood, convenient to schools, churches, stores, &c., and will be sold very low for cash or approved securities.

Also, a RIVER BOTTOM FARM of 76 acres, 19 miles from the city, in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the Youghiogheny river, one-half mile from Elrod's Station, on the Connellsville railroad; near churches, schools, stores, &c., in the flourishing villages of Boston and Green Oak. The improvements are a two-story brick house of six rooms, hall and cellar, a good frame bank barn with stabling underneath, and other outbuildings; a well of good standing water at the door, and several standing springs of water on the farm, and an orchard of 700 trees of selected fruits of apples, cherries, pears, peaches, quinces and grapes. This property being located near the line of the railroad, within one hour's ride of the city, makes it very desirable for gardening or a dairy farm; it is also a good and beautiful location for country homes near the city, lying immediately on the river, on the opposite side from the railroad. The West Newton Accommodation and other trains on the railroad afford certain and frequent opportunities of daily communication to and from the city. Will be sold as a whole or in lots of one acre or more, to suit purchasers.

Also, A FARM OF 173 ACRES, situated in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., near the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Houston Station. The improvements are a two-story frame house, with six rooms and good cellar, a frame bank barn 40 by 60 feet, and other outbuildings. There is on the place a young apple and peach orchard; 120 acres cleared land, divided into fields of convenient size, a large portion of which are well set in clover and timothy; the residue of said tract covered with good timber. It is well watered and underlaid with coal and limestone, and is convenient to churches, schools, stores, mills and blacksmith shops. A real good bargain is offered in this excellent farm; and with it will be sold all the personal property on the premises, consisting of horses, cows, stock cattle, hogs and poultry, harness, gears, wagon, plows, farming implements and household and kitchen furniture. Together will be sold very low and on easy terms, to a responsible purchaser.

Also, a desirable and very fertile Tract of Land of 158 ACRES AND 25 PERCHES, in Elizabeth Tp., Allegheny county, Pa., on the line of the Hempfield railroad, and one and one-half miles from the Connellsville railroad at Suter's Station. On this farm are 40 acres of superior white oak timber, which alone is now worth one-half the price asked for the whole tract. The improvements are a log house, frame barn, good fencing, and an apple orchard of good fruit. It is well watered and underlaid with limestone and flag stone of a superior quality, with stone coal for the use of the farm.

Also, The best FARM in Fairfield township, Westmoreland county, Pa., of 250 ACRES, about six miles south of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad at Bolivar Station. The improvements are two large hewed log dwellings; one of the largest and best frame barns in the township; two apple orchards, in good bearing condition; corn crib, wagon-shed and other outbuildings. The whole farm is under a high state of cultivation; fencing all in first rate order, and the land of the best quality of limestone soil, about 200 acres of which is cleared and the residue of the tract in good timber, such as white oak, rock oak, hickory, walnut and beech. FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, June 20, 1868.

Gold opened weak to-day at 140⅛ and closed at 140¼ to 140⅜, the market is very dull, and the tendency is for lower rates. The shipments of specie are much smaller, and will likely not exceed one million dollars this week, partley on account of the increased supply of cotton bills on the market and the disinclination of imports to buy gold before July next. Most of the large holders of government bonds are cutting off their coupons and dispose of them at present quotation. This will give a large supply of cash gold on the market immediately after July next, and will have the effect of lowering the premium at once whatever the tendency hereafter may be.

Government bonds, according to the telegrames of the western papers, were higher and much on demand, but strange to say, the advance always takes place at the close of business or on Saturday evening, but these quotations are never sustained during the following day. Anybody can buy at these high quotations but when it comes to selling the market is reported off. To-day the market was well sustained except 1867 five-twenties and seven-thirties, which declined at the close.

Stocks are very dull, and transactions are limited; scarcely any new purchasers appearing in the market, and the moment a few clinged together on a certain stock have caused a slight advance, the number of sellers in the market are so numerous that a decline is inevitable.

Business in Express and Mining shares very dull, and these securities are entirely neglected.

Money easy at 6 to 10 per cent., and business dull.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows:

Gold, 140⅜; 1881 bonds, 117½; 1862 5-20s, 113½; 1864 do, 111; 1865 do, 111½; new, 1865 and 1867, 114½; Ten Forties, 106⅝; Seven Thirties, 110.

New York Central, 134⅞; Erie, 69¾; Michigan Southern, 90¼; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 90; Northwestern, common, 65; Preferred, 77½; Chicago & Rock Island, 105¼; Pittsburgh & Fort Wayne, 111¼; Ohio & Mississippi Certificates, 29¾; Merchants Union Express, 27¼; Western Union Telegraph, 35½; Corydon, 34; Quicksilver, 25; Quartz Hill, 1,25.

—The National Currency bill, which passed the Senate on Wednesday, has been so changed since it was brought in by Mr. Sherman that it is now a measure of but little comparative importance, and will probably be accepted by the House without much opposition. On Thursday, Senator Cattell, from the Committee on Finance, reported back the bill to provide for a further issue of temporary loan certificates, for the purpose of redeeming and retiring the remaining of the outstanding compound interest notes. This is a measure of some importance, and, on the score of economy, will probably find favor even with those who are opposed to every movement that seems to favor inflation of the currency, as the issue of these certificates will, as compared with the funding of compound interest notes into 5-20 bonds. If certificates are issued they will be held by the banks as reserve, and will relieve an equal amount of greenbacks. But they will cost the Government only 3 per cent. per annum interest, whereas, if the compounds are funded into 5-20 bonds, they will cost the Government 6 per cent. in gold interest.

—Closing quotations received by James T. Brady & Co.:

Gold, 140¼; U. S. 6's, 1881's, 117½; 5-20's, 1862, 113½; 5-20's, 1864, 111½; 5-20's, 1865, 111½; 10-40's, 106¾; 5-20's, January and July, '65, 114; 5-20's, January and July, '67 114¼; June 7-30's, 110⅝; July 7-30's, 110¾; May Comp., 1865, 119,-30.

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

CATTLE.

There was again a very fair supply of Cattle on sale to-day, and, while the butchers took hold pretty freely, there were but few sold for shipment, and the market was a little tame, though there were but few left over unsold. Prices, however, are decidedly lower, fully half a cent compared with last week, and we have no doubt that there was even a greater reduction than this on common and inferior grades. The very best butchers cattle sold at 8½ to 8¾c, which is a decline of fully one cent per pound within the past three or four weeks; good to medium may be quoted at 7 to 8c, while stockers range from 4 to 5½. The arrivals from Chicago were again light, not exceeding, if reaching, 300 head; there were quite a number from Ohio, however, and Pennsylvania was pretty well represented, so that after all the supply was fully up the demand, in point of numbers, though considerably below the usual average in regard to quality. Grass Cattle are commencing to arrive pretty freely, and, as a general thing, they have to be sold low, and this, of course, hurts the sale of good cattle. We quote the following sales:

S. Hudson wholesaled 35 head of good Green county (Pennsylvania) steers to Moses & Co. at 7¾.

Holmes, Lafferty & Co. wholesaled 19 head of grass cattle, averaging 1050, at 6½, and retailed 30 at 7½ to 8½.

L. & J. Shamberg retailed 17 head for Keeler at 7 to 8, and 8 on their own account at 7 to 8.

Marks & Traurman retailed 70 head of Illinois cattle at 5½ to 8¼.

Loubman & Zeigler sold 12 head of Marshall county (West Virginia) stock at 4 7½.

Jas. McAllister sold 21 head of Western Reserve cows and bulls, for C. A. Thayer, at 4 to 6.

Wicks sold 12 head of very common little Butler county steers and heifers, averaging about 600, to McGarvey at 4½.

Mitchell wholesaled 14 head of pretty good stock to Shamberg at 7½.

Funk sold 39 head of fairish Allen county (Ohio) steers to Hazlewood & Blackstock at 6,68.

Blackstock & Hazlewood 34 head of Chicago steers at 7,50 to 8,90, and 19 head Ohio stock at 5,50 to 7,50.

Hedges & Taylor sold 38 head Ohio steers for Timmons at 7,75 to 8,25, and 8 head of Ohio steers for George England at 7,50 to 7,75.

Sheitemental & Flinner sold 6 head of Butler county bulls at 3,50 to 4,50.

McMillan & Kerr had 14 head of Washington county steers, averaging 1050, which they held at 7¼.

Earny reports having sold 17 head of Jefferson county Ohio scalawags at 4 to 5,50.

E. Katz sold 20 head of Tuscarawas county, Ohio, 'scalawags," mostly bulls, to Hines, at 3 to 4.

L. Rothchilds retailed 20 head Chicago steers at 7,75 to 8,75, and 20 Ohio steers at 7 to 8.

R O Campbell "stuck" Verner & Doud with 18 head of good Ohio steers at 8½; these gentlemen, it seems, put more money in this bunch of cattle than they could get out.

Kraus & Haas retailed 48 head Chicago steers at 7 to 8½.

Myers & Needy sold 32 head of Licking Co. Ohio steers for C Montgomery, at 7½ to 9; 19 from some place for W C Malholm at 7 cents, and retailed 15 head on their own account at 7¾ to 8½.

Greenwald & Kahn retailed 53 head Chicago steers at 7 to 9.

Garwin & Bro. had 18 head of Butler Co. cows and bulls—did not get their prices.

Emmell sold a small bunch of Washington Co. stock including to 2 prime steers at 8¼.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

There was not as large a supply of sheep on sale to-day, as there has been for three or four weeks past, and while prime fat mutton sheep were in better demand, and brought a slight advance, common and inferior, were just about as dull as ever. There was some inquiry for shipment, and several car loads of good fat sheep could have been sold for Philadelphia market; all the best sheep were taken by butchers at higher figures than shippers could afford to pay, while common and inferior were not wanted. The offerings were considerably below those of last week, and though as we have already stated, the supply of common sheep was considerably in excess of the demand.

Glenn wholesaled 50 head of good Butler Co. sheep averageing, 100 bbls, to Garwin & Co. at 4,06 cents per pound.

Sheitemantle & Flinner retailed 160 head sheep and lambs from Butler Co. at $1,25 to $3,50 per head.

Koffman sold 36 head Washington Co. lambs at $2,50 to $4 per head.

J Rynn had 85 head of common mixed sheep on sale for Sherrick; thought they would average $2,50 per head.

Walters & Fowler sold 160 head Lawrence and Mercer Co. at $1,50 to $3,50 per head for sheep—10 head of the best sold at 5 cts; and $2 to $3¼ per head for lambs.

Stakely & Bro. report 138 head at $1,50 to $2,50 per head for lambs, and $2 to $4 for sheep.

Adam Eckert sold 72 lambs $1,50 to $3,00; 107 sheep $1,50 to $5,00; also 120 head scalawags to Hines at 70 cents per head.

M. Humes reports selling 60 Lambs, at an average of $2,25 per head.

Beeler reports 60 head Lambs at $1,50 to $2,50.

HOGS.

Tho demand for this class of stock continues very light, and the market is dull, though prices are nominally unchanged; $8,50 to $10,50, gross, for light to prime heavy averages, in a retail way.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, June 22, 1868.

CRUDE—The Crude market is quiet, and with little change either in regard to price or feeling. Spot oil may be quoted at 12 to 12⅛c; sale of 500 bbls, to arrive by rail, at 12⅛c, and 1,000 each for August, September and October at 12¾c. The demand is light, both for present and future delivery, but the offerings are light, and there is no disposition manifested at present to make any further concessions in order to effect sales. Oil City telegrams quote $4,80 as being offered there, and $4,30 on creek, and market firm. The indications for another bulk rise are favorable, and it was reported raining and river rising at Oil City, with two feet in the channel; it will take considerable more rain than has yet fallen to cause a rise, and dealers do not calculate very strongly on a rise, as the weather is very uncertain at this season of the year.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil is devoid of any new characteristics worthy of special notice, excepting that it is dull and neglected with but little doing. The only sales reported to-day were 1,300 bbls on spot at 30; and 1,000 bbls for the last half July at same figure. On Saturday evening the last half of July sold at 31½, and first half of August at 32½; it is but proper to add however, that these figures could scarcely have been realized to day, though a line from August to December, could doubtless have been sold at 32½ without much difficulty. While the early months have declined considerably within the past few days, the late months, have undergone but little change. The latest circulars from Philadelphia report the stock of oil at 60,000 bbls in that market, showing a very large increase within a short time.

CHICAGO, June 22.—Beef cattle very quiet at $6,25a7,75 for fair to good smooth shipping beeves. Hogs dull at $8,50a8,70 for fair to medium, and $8,87½a9,20 for good to extra choice assorted.

Farm, Garden and Household.

Cured Grass.

Grass is to stock, what bread and butter is to man—the great staff of life. Hence pasture or soiling in summer, and grass (early cured hay) in winter. This has been tried and found to succeed; the highest results have been obtained by it; they are on record; and the principle is practiced yearly now by most of our best dairymen. Hay will harvest itself quite moist—not outside water; that must be excluded rigidly. There must be no dew or rain; that will spoil your hay. But the juices are a different thing, mind you. The quality in them (in the water the hay contains) keep them. Your hay needs but be wilted, no moisture outside, and you are good for a winter's store of the best of fodder. Draw in without sweating, if you think the rain will catch you. There will be a sweating operation in the mow, but it will not be serious. It may touch a little with mould; but the hay is still excellent—far and away ahead of all good handdried hay, even if but "just out out of blossom." It will be relished by stock; stock will thrive upon it, eat it up clean, and show but little difference from the effect of the best cured. We have known the best results spring from mowing clover one day and putting it in the next, clover scarcely yet in blossom, perfectly tender and juicy. It was mowed when the dew was off, and put up in cocks towards evening. Indeed, it is difficult to see how it can be improved. It came out bright and fragrant; the blossoms that were out retained their color, and almost their freshness of summer. The sweating was done in the mow, and amounted to only enough to wet the fork-handle that lay on the bulk. Hay will sometimes spoil, cut green; but it is in consequence of the dew being on when cut, or being put up when their is a moisture outside. Evaporate this, and when you have done it your hay will be wilted—it will be fit to go in. The wilting is in consequence of the discharge of water from the inside of the stem, leaving the juices sufficiently concentrated to keep it. But try a little. Cut it towards noon; air it well by turning and throwing it about; and in the afternoon, say five or six o'clock, draw it in. Try a few loads this way. This way you can certainly get it in without rain, and no dew either—no bleaching. Then try a little in the same way, only keep it in cock a day, some two, and some three days—then in with it with or without first spreading to the sun. Try this; and try enough so as to see what effect it will have upon stock. Dispense with the cap, or use if you like; or sweat in the cock without it. But in this (the latter) there is a risk—the rain may catch you; the dew will certainly, and bleach you on the outside; and your hay will go in, not better cured than when drawn in the day it was cut, or at the furthest the next day, putting it on cock for the night. Our plan is to make sure work—sure in the weather and sure in the quality. The water all removed from the outside, the juices concentrated by wilting, there can be nothing to find fault with. But, for the life of you, avoid the old system. Try the new; give it a fair trial, and you will find yourself unexpectedly reckoned among the good farmers that make good hay.

Growing Clover Seed.

Clover seed, if well managed, is a profitable crop, more so, in fact, than most farmers appear to be aware of. They do not seem to consider that usually two crops are grown in a year, one of hay and one of seed; and that these crops are often of considerable value, say an average of 1½ tons of hay, worth, at $10 per ton, $15, and 2½ bushels of seed, at $6 per bushel, also $15, making $30 to an acre in one season. And these are only ordinary crops; often two tons of hay and four or five bushels of seed—seven bushels have been grown in this way in this county—are grown to the acre, while prices are often much higher, giving from $40 to $50 per acre for hay and seed.

This is the usual way of growing the small kind. The other variety, being a larger and later plant, requires different management. There is not so much of this kind grown, but the price being higher, now and then a farmer makes it profitable. A friend of the writer is quite successful with this variety, his general average being five bushels per acre. Last season he grew forty-three and one-half bushels on eight acres—nearly five and one half bushels per acre. This seed has probably sold for some $8 or $9 per bushel, which, with the pasture—it is fed close up to the 10th of June, and the seed comes off early in September—makes it a very profitable crop; and this, too, it should be remembered, is grown without any expense for fitting the land or other cultivation.

If a good crop of seed from the small kind is desired, the first cutting must be early. When it is as soon as the first of July, there will often be double the seed grown in the second crop, that will be secured if the first cutting is ten days later. Still but few farmers take pains to cut clover hay early. Often, to save hiring a week or two, the clover stands until the tenth or fifteenth of July, when of course the following crop of seed must be light. Although the farmer thinks little about it at the time, yet he has sacrificed a large part of his crop of seed, perhaps makes it so late that it will not be thought worth saving, and lost from ten to twenty dollars an acre to save a few dollars for hired help. Each year's observation proves that this is often the case; and no doubt thousands of farmers in Western New York lose, or fail to realize, hundreds of dollars each, every year by such mismanagement with clover and clover seed.—F., in Country Gentleman.

Various Rural Items.

Too many barns are deficient in windows.

Money invested in needed tools pays a high per cent.

The more comfortable you keep your animals the more they will thrive.

A few roots, daily, to all stock, are as welcome as apples to boys and girls.

A good cow is a valuable machine; the more food she properly digests the greater the profit.

The spring of 1812 was so backward that the apple trees did not blossom until the 6th of June.

Itch in Swine—Rub the animal with equal parts of lard and brimstone, and put them in a clean pen.

The Valley Virginian says it has been hot, but the mountains are cool and the crops flourishing.

The Early Rose potato was raised by Alfred Breese, of Vermont, in 1861, from a seed of the Garnet Chili.

Scours in Sheep.—A pint of new milk thickened with flour. To be given twice a day till the discharge is stopped.

Grapes grow only on one year old wood. As to pruning, do the best you can, for there are as many ways as there are to get religion.

Every day look heavenward to see if there are caterpillars' nests in the trees. Apply soft soap to the trunks, never to your neighbor.

Scours in Horses.—Put one pint of good gin, and one ounce of indigo into a bottle, and shake them together and administer in one dose.

A man in Farmington, Me., has a small native cow, seven years old, which, during six months last year, averaged 11½ pounds of butter per week.

It seems strange that housekeepers don't buy pails and tubs with brass hoops and trimmings. They cost a little more at first, but last wonderfully.

Ringbone.—Mix equal parts of turpentine and lamp oil, and apply to the part affected night and morning, rubbing it well in the hair around the hoof.

The Rural World recommends giving stock, especially those confined to stables, a sod of earth a foot square once a week, or what they will eat up clean.

Bones are worth twice as much as ashes for manure, if dissolved, and the ashes will reduce them. Mix both in a barrel, half and half, and moisten with soap-suds.

A German author says the useful plants number about 12,000. Of these, there are 1,450 varieties of edible fruits, berries, and seeds. The cereals number 108, and vegetables 406.

A new variety of corn, the result of selecting seed and of high culture, has originated in Minnesota. The yield last year was as high as one hundred and thirty-seven bushels to the acre.

Flax seed occasionally given to horses or cattle will make them shed their old hair, and whether young or old, soon get sleek and fat. It is the only thing which will fatten some old horses.

Costiveness in Sheep—Two tablespoonfuls of castor oil every twelve hours. Or give one ounce epsom salts. This may be assisted by an injection of warm water, weak suds and molasses.

Diarrhea in Cattle.—Take half a pint of bran and pour boiling water on it, and cover with a thick cloth until nearly cool; then strain and give the tea to the afflicted animal. Two or three doses are sure to cure.

The grass crop of Pennsylvania, it is expected, will be the heaviest cut for ten years. The wet weather of last fall, the snows, during the winter and the continued rains of April, all combined to raise a heavy growth.

Wounds in Sheep.—Take the leaves of the elder tree and make a strong decoction, and wash the parts affected two or three times a day, and you will not be troubled with flies or worms. It also removes fever from the wound, and is healing.

All of our Minnesota exchanges speak enthusiastically of the condition of the growing crops. The season is the most favorable for many years. It is estimated that from forty to sixty per cent. will be added to the cultivated lands this year.

A young lady farmer in the fruit region of Southern Illinois got 20 per cent. more for her strawberries than others because she gave better measure and had nicer fruit. If the ladies will go on in this way, the question will be whether men ought to vote.

The Cumberland (Md.) Union says: "We are informed that the crops generally look remarkably well in many portions of this county. The fruit also promises an abundant yield, perhaps with the exception of the peach crop, which it is supposed have been seriously injured by the late frosts."

The Council Bluff (Iowa) Democrat says: "We learn that the crops in this county in some localities are pretty badly damaged by the grasshoppers. They have commenced on the corn crop, and are going for it heavy. A farmer told us yesterday that he had been trying carbolate of lime, but the grasshoppers rather liked it."

The new species of potato bug, known as the "ten-line spearman," which created such havoc in Eastern Illinois last year, is making its appearance in very large numbers in some sections of Western Indiana. About Laporte some farmers are ploughing under their vines, having failed to discover any remedy for the evil. In other parts, slacked lime sprinkled over the vines has been found to act successfully.

Cost of Raising Corn.—Several neighboring farmers lately met in Champaign county, Illinois, to compare results of their farming operations. In respect to corn raising they made an estimate based upon the daily wages of men and teams, which seemed to show that at the present time corn cannot be raised at less than 50 cents per bushel, unless over 40 bushels to the acre can be obtained, which amount was considered a full average for the western part of that county.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Daily Prayer Meeting—From 12 M. to 12:30 o'clock at the Methodist Church, Fifth street, next door to GAZETTE office.

Fined.—Mayor Drum yesterday fined a man, whose name we failed to learn, ten dollars for creating a row on the Spring Garden plank road on Sunday afternoon.

To be Enclosed.—The lot on which is erected the fine public school building of East Birmingham is to be surrounded by a neat paling fence, and the lot is now being graded and leveled preparatory to being fenced.

False Alarm.—About three o'clock yesterday morning an alarm of fire was struck from box 42, corner of Sandusky street and North alley, Allegheny. The Fire Department was promptly on the ground, but the alarm proved to be false.

Allegheny Avenue.—The paving of Allegheny avenue, Second ward, Allegheny, was commenced last Saturday. A large force of workmen are engaged and the work is progressing rapidly. When completed it will be one of the handsomest thoroughfares in the city.

Discharged.—Robert Blows, who plead guilty to a charge of fornix et cet in the Court of Quarter Sessions, March 28, 1868, and was sentenced to three months imprisonment, the customary fine and costs, was yesterday discharged by order of the Court under the insolvency act.

Malicious Mischief.—Alderman McMasters issued a warrant for the arrest of John Bates, charged by Elizabeth Moorhouse, with throwing a stone through a large French plate glass window in her house, completely demolishing it, on Sunday afternoon. The parties reside in the Fifth ward, Allegheny.

Committed.—Justice Michael Lipp, of Birmingham, yesterday committed for trial Charles Schmidt, charged with assault and battery, on oath of Henry Meisterfelt. The prosecutor alleges that he went into a saloon in that borough for the purpose of getting a glass of beer, when he was assaulted and beaten by the accused.

False Pretence.—Jos. McKee alleges that George Wright sold him a horse for two hundred and fifteen dollars, warranting the animal to be sound and perfect in every respect, and that he has since discovered it to be wind-broken and otherwise imperfect. A warrant was issued by Alderman Donaldson yesterday for the arrest of the accused.

The Cutting Affray at Sewickley.—A motion for the discharge of Numan and Hackett, implicated in the cutting affray at Sewickley, was made by their counsel on the ground that the commitment was defective, no prosecutor appearing upon it. Numan was remanded and Hackett released, giving bail in the sum of two thousand dollars.

Coroner's Inquest.—The body of Louis Richter, the boy who was drowned in the Allegheny river, Friday evening, an account of which we published yesterday, was found floating in the Ohio river, near Snyder's ice house, Sunday evening, and Coroner Clawson held an inquest on it yesterday morning, when the jury returned a verdict of accidental drowning.

Tore His Vest.—Jacob Garricht made information yesterday against George Thomas Knochel for assault and battery. The parties reside in Ross township, near the Poor Farm, and Garricht alleges that Knochel attacked him on the 4th of June last without provocation, tearing his vest completely off his body. The accused was arrested on a warrant issued by Alderman Taylor, and held for a hearing on Thursday at ten o'clock.

Committed for Trial.—James Barr, charged on oath of E. Jillett before Justice Kerr, with obtaining money under false pretence, was arrested yesterday, and after a hearing held to bail for his appearance at Court, in default of which a commitment was made out and placed in the hands of the constable, who brought the accused to this city. The jail being closed for the night, Barr was confined in the lock-up and will be taken up to-day.

Assault and Battery.—Isaac Kahn made information on Saturday before Alderman Bailie against B. Trauerman for assault and battery. The parties it seems had just settled a similar case by each paying half the costs, and were passing up Federal street on their way from the office when they got into another dispute, resulting in a threat by Trauerman to pitch into Kann, who immediately returned and made the information. A warrant was issued.

Assaulted at a Pic-Nic.—A German Catholic pic-nic was held yesterday on Troy Hill, which was attended by the children of Belthauser Herbert. In the afternoon Mr. Herbert went out to the pic-nic grounds to bring his children home, and he alleges that while there a certain Cony Duffinger, assisted by two brothers named Hartman, hit him on the head with a stone and otherwise brutally abused him. The parties were arrested by Mayor Drum's police and will have a hearing this morning.

Disorderly Conduct.—Reuben Hope was brought before Mayor Drum yesterday, on a charge of disorderly conduct, preferred by Mrs. Phillips. The prosecutor, who, it appears, owns the house in which the defendant lives, alleges that he has been in the habit for some time past of congregating men and women in the premises to drink with him and engage in other disreputable practices. The case was finally settled by Hope agreeing to leave the house forthwith, and paying the costs. Two of the women found at the place were served with a twenty days' commitment to the jail for vagrancy.

The Opera House.—A large and respectable audience filled the Opera House to see the "Great Rebellion; or the Last Ditch," as portrayed by Mr. Hahn. The piece has been wonderfully improved since it was first put upon the stage, and will doubtless prove a success, financially and in all other respects. It is daily increasing in popularity, and is drawing better houses than anything else that could be produced at this season of the year. The grand transformation scene at the close of the piece is one of the most gorgeous ever put upon a Pittsburgh stage, and is alone worth the price of admission.

Pushed Down Stairs.

Alderman Bailie on Saturday, arrested Mrs. McIntyre, who resides at 23 Wylie street, Pittsburgh on an information for assault and battery preferred by G. H. Adams. The prosecutor alleges, that he had sold a door bell to the defendant, who paid for it in part at the time, and upon calling for the balance, the bill having been broken in the meantime, she struck him and pushed him down stairs, thereby endangering his life. After a hearing she was held in $500 bail for her appearance at Court.

Discharged.

In the case of William Hodge, William Miller and others, charged with stealing a horse from Dr. Burch, the prosecutor, failed to substantiate his allegations, and the accused were discharged. Messrs. Hodges and Miller are engaged in business in Pittsburgh, both enjoying a good reputation in the community, which accounts for the astonishment of all with whom they are acquainted at the proceedings against them. The hearing, however, which was held on Saturday effectually relieves them of all suspicion of guilt, and places them in a proper light as innocent before the public.

DEATH FROM LAUDANUM.

A Clerk Commits Suicide--Domestic Difficulties the Cause.

The suicide mania, instead of abating, appears to be on the increase in this locality. Sunday another victim was added to the list. One more human being had the courage, or madness, whichever it may be, to face death, and by his own hands send his soul to eternity. The facts connected with the affair are as follows: A little over a year ago F. C. Hooper, the victim, came to this city from Cleveland, accompanied by his wife and family, a son and three daughters, and rented a house, which they occupied jointly with Mr. Wilds, in Manchester. Hooper was employed at the oil refinery of of Fleming & Co., in Manchester, and the family, it appears, lived pleasantly together for about six months, when Mrs. H., it is stated, for some reason doubted her husband's fidelity, and accused him of inconstancy. He denied the charge, but could not convince his wife that she was accusing him wrongfully, and in December last she and the children left him and returned to Cleveland, where they have since resided, there being no cammunication between them and the husband. Hooper still retained possession of the room he had previously occupied with his family until about a week since, and a part of his furniture yet remains there. He then obtained boarding of Mr. James E. Burns, at No. 42 Tunnel street, occupying a room on the third floor. Friday he was absent and returned on Saturday morning and went to his room, but did not come to his meals during the day. He was last seen alive Sunday morning, at which time he was passing through the hall of the house with no clothing upon him. At noon Sunday Mr. Burns inquired of his wife if she had seen anything of Hooper, and receiving a reply in the negative, he went to the door of the room occupied by Hooper and knocked, but receiving no reply, he left, thinking the occupant of the room had gone out. Yesterday morning he was informed that Hooper had been seen in the house Sunday, and fearing there was something wrong, he again visited the room, and finding the door still locked forced it open, when he found lying upon the bed the lifeless body of the unfortunate creature, the victim of his own rashness. The body was stiff and cold, and life had evidently been extinct for several hours. There was no clothing upon him but a shirt, and one arm was extended over the side of the bed, the hand firmly grasping a piece of paper, upon which were the following words:

"Em, My Dear Wife: I do this out of my great love for you. The money I have belongs to Fleming & Co.—$125 00."

The pencil with which the note was written was found wrapped up inside the paper. As soon as Mr. Burns made this discovery he summoned Coroner Clawson, by whom a jury was impannelled. The testimony before the jury was in substance as given above. Dr. J. H. Snodgrass, who was called in, testified that in his opinion death was produced by laudanum, and that, judging from the note, it was taken designedly by the deceased. Mr. Thomas Stephenson testified that he was acquainted with the hand writing of deceased, and to the best of his belief the note found was written by him. The Coroner found the money alluded to in the note carefully spread out on the top of the dressing bureau in the room, with a collar box lying on it. The jury found that deceased came to his death on the 21st inst. by poison administered by his own hands.

Fatal Mistake—Death from Morphine—Coroner's Inquest.

A most unfortunate mistake was made in one of the principal drug stores of this city on Saturday evening, resulting in the death of Margaret McShane, daughter of Jas. McShane, who resides on Webster street near High, in the Third Ward. It appears that the child, which was about one year old, was sick with measles, and was attended by Dr. McMeal, who had given a prescription which was filled at Able's drug store, corner of Grant and Fifth street, and on Saturday night, the supply of medicine having been exhausted, Mr. McShane went to the drug store to have the bottle refilled. The number of the prescription 6,513, was on the label upon the bottle, and the druggist it appears made a mistake and filled prescription No. 6,413 instead, which was a solution of Morphine. The medicine was not administered until about eleven o'clock Sunday morning, and at ten oclock in the evening the child died. Coroner Clawson was notified of the fact, and yesterday evening held an inquest, when the following facts were elicited:

TESTIMONY.

James McShane, sworn—I am father of the deceased; the child was attended by Dr. McMeal; he gave a prescription which was filled, and after it run out I took it back to Abel's drug store and got it filled on Saturday night between ten and eleven o'clock; don't know the name of the young man who filled it; he looked at it and went to the prescription book and looked at it two or three minutes; he took a jar from the shelf and filled the vial and gave it to me; I then asked for some gum arabic, and while he was getting it thought he made a mistake in taking all the medicine from one jar; thought of asking him, but a lady coming into the store at the time I did not do so; came home and the medicine was administered to the child by my wife at 11 o'clock Sunday morning; the child was seized with vomiting half an hour afterwards; it lived till ten P. M., Sunday; the medicine was examined by the doctor and he pronounced it a solution of morphine; the child had measles.

Dr. B. Brashear, sworn—Dr. McMeal being absent Sunday, I visited his patients. Visited the child about ten A. M., and found her better than on Friday, when I had last seen her. Told the mother that the prospects of the child's recovery were good, and did not think any change in the medicine was necessary. I noticed a three ounce vial on the mantle; tasted it and from the taste thought it was a solution of quinine. At one o'clock was notified that the child was dying, and when I arrived I found the child in that state which results from an overdose of opium. I made no mention of my suspicions but sent for fluid extract of belladonna, and three or four potions were administered at intervals of fifteen minutes. It proved unsuccessful and the child died. I do not know the clerk who put up the prescription. He put up No. 6,413 instead of No 6,513.

James D. Kearns, sworn—Am head clerk at Abel's drug store. Mr. Able is in Chicago. John Irwin is the young man who put up the prescription.

John Irwin, sworn—I put up the prescription, but do not know how I made the mistake. I have never seen prescriptions mixed up as they are here, having different numbers upon them. I have only been in the store a short time. The placing of two numbers was not explained to me until Sunday evening. I have been in the drug business three years, and I told them when I came, three weeks ago, that I was not a thorough druggist.

The jury returned the following verdict: "Margaret McShane came to her death on the 21st of June, 1868, in the Third ward, Pittsburgh, from morphine procured by the erroneous filling of a physician's prescription at Joseph Abel's drug store."

It is due to Mr. Kearns, the head clerk, to state that he was absent from the store at the time the mistake was made, and is in no way accountable for it. He is an experienced druggist, having been in the business for over ten years. The young man who put up the prescription is said to be a careful druggist, but unfortunately was not familiar with the manner in which Mr. Abel's prescription book is kept, which was the cause of the accident. He had been in the store but a few weeks, and had never previously had occasion to refer to the book for a prescription, and consequently did not understand the numbers which in some instances are duplicated.

EDUCATIONAL.

Commencement Exercises of the Pittsburgh Female College—The Baccalaureate Sermon—Reading Contest.

Sunday morning quite an intelligent and good sized congregation assembled in Christ M. E. Church to hear the Baccalaureate sermon, by Rev. W. H. Locke, A. M., pastor of Liberty street, M. E. Church. The discourse was based upon The Parable of the Talents in its application to actual, every day life. The topic was fully elaborated and presented in a very attractive form. The subject was evidently well prepared, and was delivered in excellent taste and with a fine full-toned voice. The careful attention of the large audience showed how well the speaker had secured their attention and consideration. The closing words to the graduating class we would like to give, as they are worthy of print. Suffice it to say, however, they were words well chosen and appropriate to the occasion.

MONDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

The examination proceeded yesterday in a number of educational branches, and the scholars displayed unusual proficiency. In the evening the annual reading contest for the Davidson prize, an elegant silver goblet, was held in the College chapel. There were present many of our leading citizens, and the entertainment proved very acceptable. The scholars competing, twelve in number, evinced rare training and culture, reflecting high credit on their instructor in elocution, Prof. W. S. Gray, of Gray's Institute. The exercises opened with prayer by Rev. T. S. Hodgson, after which a musical execution of decided brilliancy was rendered on the piano by Misses Endsley and Kimball, followed by a vocal gem by Miss Amelia Por. Miss Katie Lare, daughter of the late Will A. Lare, Esq., led off in the contest, reading in a clear, sweet and well articulated voice a poetical selection entitled "My Photographic Album." For one so young she displayed rare elocutionary ability, reading her piece well and faithfully. The "Little Drummer," a melancholy scrap of poetry, was read next by Miss Irene Godfrey in such a pleasing manner as to win the hearty applause of the audience. The next contestant was Miss Lizzie Fawcett, who, though quite young, interpreted in a masterly manner the "Life Book," a composition varied in emotions and requiring much skill to read properly, a task which this young lady performed to the full satisfaction of the audience, giving evidence that she fully entered into the spirit of the author. "Three days in the life of Columbia," a historical poem of considerable fire and force, was read in a thrilling manner by Miss Laura Sawhill. Miss Mary Buchanan read Damon and Pythias in very good style, while Miss Sigourney Trask equally well acquitted herself in the rendition of "the Ministering Angel." The "Old house clock" was struck on the ears of the audience in a sweet musical way by Miss Ella King, and "On the Shores of Tennesse," a poetical legend, was delivered with marked effect by Miss Lillie Markle, a reader of much ability. "High tide at Lincolnshire," a very difficult and intricate selection, full of changing emotions, and varying passions, was brilliantly delivered by Miss M. Thomas. This young lady possesses higher powers of elocution than Miss Anna Dickinson, and indeed many of our histrionic artistes would fail in comparison with her. She has been a close student, and aided by the natural gift of a clear, well defined, sharp cut voice, has attained surprising proficiency as a reader. "Horatius at the Bridge" was rendered in an artistic manner by Miss Anna McCoy. The selection was injudicious, as the young lady would have made a much better impression on the audience had she read a less historical production, and one in which her naturally soft and subdued voice would have had full scope in the interpretation of a less fiery selection. She acquitted herself admirably. Miss Mary H. Pershing read "Lochiel's Warning" in extra good style, and won the golden opinions of the audience. At intervals the audience was favored with vocalizations by Miss Cora Brown, Miss Kimball, Miss Clark and Miss Caples, while excellent instrumental music was afforded by Mr. and Mrs. Blessner, Miss Mitchell, Miss Saide Cunningham and Miss Anne Endsley.

The judges, through W. D. Moore, Esq., reported their decision in favor of Miss. M. Thomas, and mentioned Miss. Pershing as worthy honorable mention. Mr. Moore paid a high tribute to the contestants, and remarked that the judges regretted that there were not prizes enough to go around, since all displayed such marked ability and proficiency. The audience then retired much pleased with the intellectual treat afforded.

Serious Railroad Accident.

A serious accident occurred about eleven o'clock yesterday, at the yard of the Pittsburgh National Coal Company, on Try street, between Third and Fourth, by which David Flavin, a brakeman, employed by the company, had his left leg crushed so badly that it will have to be amputated, and also received serious internal injuries. A train was backing into the yard, with a number of coal cars in front of which there were several open freight cars. Flavin was standing on the bumper of the front coal car next to the freight car ready to cut the coal cars loose as soon as they had been run into the yard. When the rear car struck the bumper, he signaled the engineer to stop, but his signal for some cause was not heeded, and the engineer continued to back the train. The rear car being against the bumper, the train could get no further back, and the consequence was that the end of the freight car and the front coal car upon which the brakeman was standing, were raised up, and at length the coal car dropped, letting the end of the freight car fall on the platform, catching the leg of the breakman and crushing it in the manner described.

Drs. Sutton, Smith and Thomas were called in and rendered all the assistance required, after which the injured man was removed to Mercy Hospital. The Doctors say the limb will have to be amputated, but the operation cannot be performed until the extent of his internal injuries are ascertained. This is the third accident which has occurred at this place within a year. One man was killed about ten months since and some six weeks after another had his leg broken and has not been able to work since. The Coal Company have been very generous, however, and paid the wages of the injured man ever since he was hurt, and they propose to do the same in the present case; but have notified the Railroad Company that they would hold them responsible for the accident.

It is alleged by the agent of the Coal Company that the accident was the result of carelessness on the part of the conductor, whom, he says, gave the signal to the engineer to move the train back after the brakeman had signalled him to stop.

Mr. Flavin is a young man about twenty-seven years of age and formerly boarded in Birmingham. He served three years in the late rebellion and is said to be a man of industrious and steady habits.

Fair and Festival.

The fair and festival, under the management of the ladies of the Ross street Methodist Episcopal Church, was well attended last evening, and the ice cream, strawberries, cakes, &c., disappeared with a rapidity which spoke well for their quality. The fair will continue to-night and during the rest of the week. Another attraction has been added to those already there, in the shape of a gold headed cane, to be awarded to either of the gentlemen receiving the highest number of votes. Revs. W. F. Lauck, of Ames Chapel, and C. Thorn, of Ross street, being the contestants. Votes are also being taken on a handsome set of silver, to be presented to the Rev. W. H. Locke, of Liberty street church, or the Rev. Hiram Miller, of Smithfield street.

THE COURTS.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Stowe.

The following business was transacted on Saturday:

Robert Reed, indicted for assault and battery with intent to commit a rape, on oath of Mrs. Lottie Holmes, plead guilty to simple assault and battery. The plea was accepted. The offense was alleged to have been committed at the house of the prosecutrix, on Etna street, fifth Ward, May 22d, and information made before Alderman Taylor on the day following. The court sentenced defendent to pay a fine of twenty dollars and costs. The prosecutrix was directed to pay the costs in a surety case in which Reed was the complainant.

Considerable time was occupied in the hearing of a case of abandonment, in which John Haulen was complained of by his wife for desertion and refusal to maintain her and her children.

The grand jury having concluded their business came into court and were discharged. They passed on over three hundred bills.

This Court was engaged during most of yesterday in the trial of trifling assault and battery cases.

Benjamin Trimble, Jr., was convicted of fornix et cet., on oath of Sallie J. Richardson, and sentenced to pay a fine of ten dollars for the use of the Guardians of the Poor, and one dollar per week for four years for the support of the child.

Common Pleas—Judge Mellon.

Wm. M. Blackburn, Esq., of Westmoreland county, on motion of Thomas M. Marshall, Esq., was admitted to the Bar.

Nicholas Link vs. Morrison, Koegler & Co. Action to recover $163.84 for work and labor done.

The Late Sculling Race—A Card from Harry Coulter.

A Philadelphia paper of Saturday contains the following card:

MR. EDITOR:—As one of the principals in the late sculling match for the championship of the American waters, it is due to myself and the public that a few words of explanation should be given. In the match on the 18th inst., after the start, I led Hamill nearly a boat length, when he, to the disgust of even some of his friends, pulled into and "fouled" me. I was in my own course when he pulled into me, and as the boats came together he caught hold of my outrigger, when, in my efforts to separate the boats in order to have a fair race, both of us were precipitated into the water. I then turned my boat up, got into her, and asked Hamill to do the same, and not disappoint those who had come to witness the match. He refused. I then pulled over the course and claimed the race.

In accordance with the decision of Stephen Roberts, an old and honorable boatman, in the match between Hamill and Brown, at Newburg, N. Y., I was fairly entitled to the championship and stakes. He (Roberts) decided that as Hamill was in the lead at Newburg, at the time of the alleged foul, he was entitled to the race. No one who saw the race on the 18th instant, will deny that I was in the lead, and that the foul was intentional on the part of Hamill, whom I charge with being afraid to row me a fair and honorable race. To-day, in order to satisfy a referee whose decision was partial in the extreme, and to show that I meant business and desired to win upon my own merits, I consented, against the wishes of my friends, to row the race again. It seemed, however, that fate as well as foul play was against me, for at the third stroke my oar snapped in two.

Mr. Charles Elliott, one of the judges called Hamill back to make a fresh start; but Mr. White, the referee, called ont to Hamil to go on. Mr. Elliott appealed to him to call Hamill back, especially as my friends had waived their claim on the day previous for the purpose of deciding which was the better man. At the time of the breaking of my oar, we had not fairly started, and were not more than two or three boat-lengths from the starting point. If there had been a particle of honor in the man who acted as referee, he would have ordered us back to make a fresh start.

I have made the above statement for the purpose of placing myself fairly before the boatmen and citizens of Philadelphia, to whom I desire to return my thanks for many kind favors during my stay. I will say, in conclusion, that I stand ready to row Mr. Hamill, or any other man, for any amount he may be pleased to name, and at any time he chooses. H. COULTER,

Old Folks' Concert.

A grand vocal and instrumental concert by the Old Folks in costume, under the direction of Prof. W. A. Lawton, will be given in the Academy of Music, Thursday evening, at which the best musical talent in the city and vicinity will assist. Among the participants we notice the following ladies and gentlemen: The Misses Jones, Rinehart, Houston, Wallace, Lewis, Good, Ernest, Robson; Mrs. Sawyer, McCowan; and Messrs. Lawton, Breed, Robinson, Cuthbert, Loton, Swinzell, MuNulty, Rinehart, Miller, Dihm, Diehl, and Whiteside, the mere mention of whose names as performers should be sufficient to attract a large audience. A full orchestra will be in attendance, and the instrumental music will in itself be a complete concert. Those who desire to spend an evening in the enjoyment of a rare musical entertainment should not fail to be in attendance at the Academy on Thursday night. Seats can be secured at C. C. Mellor's. Sale of reserved seats commences at nine o'clock today.

Larceny.

Chas. Uprich was before Mayor Drum yesterday, charged with larceny. It is alleged that the accused entered Moon's grocery store on Ohio street, yesterday morning, carrying a basket on his arm, and while the attention of the proprietor was directed to another part of the store, endeavored to steal a large piece of smoked meat. He was detected, however, and two of the Mayor's police, who were passing at the time, arrested him. An examination of the basket by the officers revealed a package of extract of coffee, half a dozen iron pincers, a box of pocket knives, and a miscellaneous lot of small articles. The knives were identified as the property of Mr. Joseph Lautner, hardware merchant on Ohio street. At the hearing last evening, the parties interested declining to prosecute, the prisoner was discharged.

The Dollar Savings Bank.

Elsewhere we publish the twenty-sixth semi-annual report of the Dollar Savings Bank of this city. Its affairs, as will be gleaned from the interesting figures published, are in remarkably healthy condition, carrying a contingent fund of over $175,000. The trustees declare a dividend of three per cent. out of the profits for the last six months free of Government tax and payable forthwith. No banking institution in the city is more ably managed and none is more worthy the great and general confidence bestowed by the community. It is large or small depositors on time presents rare inducements. The importance and benefit derived by the public from such institutions cannot be over estimated.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

A Fast Young Man Offends His Father and is Driven From Home—He Takes Three Ounces of Laudanum.

A fast young man, son of a prominent liquor and tobacco merchant of this city had the misfortune to offend his stern parent a few days since, in consequence of which he was relieved from any further attendance at the paternal mansion, or in other words, ordered from the presence of his offended father, with the strict injunction to return no more for ever. Being thus rudely thrust upon the world without a shilling, and having no great stock of confidence, the young man's heart failed within him, and he resolved to rid the father of his presence and place himself beyond the cares and troubles of life by quietly slipping into eternity. Having fully resolved to end his troubles in this way, he took the train for New Castle Friday morning, and upon arriving there, immediately repaired to a livery stable where he hired a horse and buggy and drove to the quiet village of Edenburg, some six miles distant, where, it appears, he intended to carry his rash designs into execution. He drove up to Campbell's hotel, and after eating a hearty dinner repaired to a room which he had engaged on his arrival, and after writing a letter to his cruel parent, the contents of which have not been made public, he produced a six ounce vial filled with laudanum, and immediately swallowed about one-half of it. He then placed the letter on the mantle, and sitting the vial containing the deadly portion upon it laid himself down upon the bed to await the effect of the dose. Mr. Campbell, the landlord, having occasion to go up stairs, happened to pass the door at the time he was swallowing the dose, and thinking there was nothing wrong entered the room and saw the state of affairs. He at once sent for a physician, who, with the aid of a stomach pump, relieved the unfortunate young man of the drug. He is still suffering slightly from the effects of his rashness, but is in a fair way to recover. He will not repeat the dose.

War or no War, the ladies cannot neglect their beauty. Gentleness and kindness are excellent things in their way, but it takes beauty to inspire heroism. Just now presents are "all the go." Lovers going to the war send mementoes to their sweethearts which is of course a very proper thing.

The difficulty is that the right kind are not chosen, at least so I have been told lately by several pretty girls, who honor me with their confidence. One has promised to give me one of her sweetest kisses if I will only hint to stupid young men, that good things for the toilet are always in season, such as Joseph Burnett & Co.'s Cocoaine, Florimel, Kalliston and Oriental Tooth Wash; the first being the best preparation for the hair extant; the second the most delightful perfume, the third the most effectual Cosmetic, and the fourth the most reliable preserver and beautifier of the teeth and gums. Some will say that even the pretty ones ought to be thinking of something else just now, yet where is the use of being lugubrious? What if there be some fighting? All will not be killed. There will be quite enough left to admire the beautiful daughters of Eve; aye and the latter will deserve it as much as ever.—Sear's Review. TTSW

A Bad Practice.—Several boys were arrested by the Mayor's police yesterday morning for playing base ball at the Point, to the great annoyance of the neighborhood. For some time past boys have been in the habit of congregating at the Point, on the wharves and throughout the city wherever a vacant lot could be found, and playing base ball, causing considerable trouble to the citizens and all persons having business near their place of rendezvous. The Mayor has determined to put a stop to this practice, and has instructed the police to promptly arrest all offenders in future.

Testimonial from Hon. John Covode, Member of Congress.

For more than a year I suffered inconvenience from a constant sounding in my left ear. On the 21st of May I applied to Dr. E. S. Aborn, at 134 Smithfield street, Pittsburgh. He relieved me at once, and from that day to this I have had no difficulty of any kind. Truly, 6td-1tw. JOHN COVODE.

Most Bitters of the present day that are loudly puffed through the newspapers as having great curative properties are vile compounds and base impositions, containing no medicinal virtues whatever, and are really very poor whisky beverages, and, instead of acting as a stimulant and tonic, have a tendency to weaken the stomach by entirely destroying the coating. The public should therefore be very cautious and purchase none but Roback's Stomach Bitters, which have stood the test as a remedial agent for many years, and are really as their name indicates, a stomach bitters and not a beverage. They combine the properties of the best tonic and a stimulant—a laxative, an efficient and anti-bilious agent and the best stomachic known to the world, and when taken in conjunction with Roback's Blood Pills, are the safest and surest preventive against all bilious derangements, thoroughly regulating the whole system and giving tone to the digestive organs.

They are highly recommended as an invigorating tonic to mothers while nursing, increasing the flow of milk, and for convalescents, to restore the prostration which always follows long-continued sickness, they are unsurpassed. No household should consider themselves safe from the ordinary maladies without these invaluable medicines. They can be obtained of any druggist. TTSF
